

in collaboration with A&C Customised Training Solutions offer

English for Nature Protection Specialists¹

Arles, France, 1-3 June 2016

Target outcomes

- Speaking practice in different formats – pair work, group work, project presentation;
- Sharing of experience;
- Broadened vocabulary customised to your particular field;
- Contextualised corrective tuition to improve grammar and fluency;
- Experience of cultural & professional field visits in English;
- Greater autonomy to improve your own English.

Course outline

Day 1

- morning: introduction, pair work, needs analysis;
- afternoon: expansion of vocabulary, frequent error correction, initial project preparation;
- evening: guided tour of Arles with a native English-speaking guide.

Day 2

- morning: field visit to a protected area with a native English-speaking nature protection professional;
- afternoon: further expansion of vocabulary, project preparation workshop;
- evening: time to relax!

Day 3

- morning: project presentations with discussion & personalised feedback;
- afternoon: more project presentations with discussion & personalised feedback, debriefing, course feedback.

Trainee profile

The course is designed for professionals in the fields of conservation, environmental awareness raising, nature / landscape management, etc. Required English level: intermediate: CEFR B1/B2 (independent user).

Trainer

Adam Lindsey-Clark, co-director of A&C Linguistic Consultants, specialised language trainer and translator with more than twenty years' experience in providing linguistic services to ecologists and nature protection organisations.

Cost per student: 1,050 euro (3 days, 350 euro per day) including full-board accommodation and training provided by a specialised native-English trainer.

¹ ATEN course reference: Pratique professionnelle de la langue anglaise. Code ATEN 1505

- Please complete this form and send it to Eurosité and ATEN by 29 April 2016. The email addresses are info@eurosité.org and naik.faucon@espaces-naturels.fr.
- Please note that your participation is only secured once the organisers have confirmed your registration and participation.
- Participants will receive practical information, such as the name and address of the venue, meeting points, and programme content.

Personal details

Mr / Mrs:

Family name:

First name(s):

Position:

Organisation:

Postal address:

Telephone:

Mobile:

E-mail:

Medical conditions (e.g. asthma, allergy):

Dietary needs (vegetarian, vegan, etc.):

Emergency contact name and telephone number:

Arrival / departure information

| Arrival in Arles | Departure from Arles |
|-------------------|----------------------|
| Date: | Date: |
| by train / by car | by train / by car |

NB: Trainees can arrive at any time on Tuesday 31 May 2016. We will start at 9:00 hrs on Wednesday 1 June and the course will finish at 16:00 hrs on Friday 3 June.

Motivation

Please let us know why you would like to join the 'English for Nature Protection Specialists' course:

Deadline for registration: 29 April 2016