

Ecosystem services and site management: from science into practice

Venue: Wageningen Environmental Research,
Droevendaalse steeg 3. Wageningen, the Netherlands (approx. 1.5 hours by direct train from Schiphol International Airport- runs every ½ hour)

Date: 8th and 9th of May

Day 1: Afternoon

12:00 Lunch

13:00- 3:30: Introduction of participants

13:30-14:00: Presentation 1- “Different uses of Ecosystem Services for management organisations” (Dr. Kees Hendriks, Wageningen Environmental Research)

14:00-14:30: ‘Walking the web’. (Irene Bouwma, Wageningen Environmental Research)

14:30-15:00: “Science policy interface” (speaker from EKLIPSE- How does the EKLIPSE mechanism works, which are the foreseen benefits for Science-Policy-Society interface and how is this translated into practical knowledge for Site Managers, regarding Biodiversity and Ecosystem Services)

15:00-15:30 Coffee break

15:30-16:30 Two examples from site managers on the use of ecosystem services in their organisation

16:30- 17:30 Meet and greet

19:30 Joint dinner at the hotel

Day 2

9:00-12:00: (10:30-11:00 Coffee break) Training 1: Information needs for management organisations: Available tools for assessing ecosystem services of managed areas.

12:00-13:00 Lunch

13:00-14:30 Training 2: How to integrate of ESS into management plans

14:30-15:00 Coffee

15:00-16: 00 Closing session: Wrap up; identifying needs for further training program

Lunch and Departure

