

Terms and conditions of registration

Please read these terms and conditions before registering for the Natural Climate Buffer study tour.

Registration deadline: 18 September 2021.

Article 1 – Registration fee

The registration fee is a fee to cover costs. The fee is €150,- for non Eurosite members. Eurosite members and friends of Eurosite receive a discount, resulting in a registration fee of €100,-. One-day participants pay a €15,- registration fee. Please note that the registration fee does not include the Eventbrite handling fee.

The fee covers transport, accommodation for the nights of Sunday 26, Monday 27 and Tuesday 28 September, breakfast, lunch and dinner during the study tour.

The fee does not cover travel and accommodation from and to the study tour. Participants are responsible for their own accommodation on other nights if they wish to travel sooner or stay longer. In any other case, the organisers have made a pre-booking for you if you fly in from outside Ireland.

Should the event be unexpectedly cancelled, the organisers are not responsible for incurred travel costs (or accommodation costs that have been made outside of the nights covered by the registration fee for that matter).

Covid-19 disclaimer: In case of cancellation due to a change in Covid-19 restrictions, the full registration fee (excluding the Eventbrite handling fee) will be reimbursed to the participant. Any travel arrangements that have been made are the responsibility of the participant and cannot be reimbursed by Eurosite.

Article 2 – General conditions and payment

Participants can register their attendance by completing the online registration form on the Eventbrite website. After the submission of the registration form, you will receive a confirmation of your registration. Payments are due upon registration.

Article 3 - Cancellations

Under normal circumstances, any cancellation needs to be done two weeks ahead of the event. However, due to the unpredictable times regarding Covid-19, should you need to cancel your participation, the registration fee will be reimbursed.

Article 4 - VISA

It is the responsibility of each person attending the Natural Climate Buffers study tour to verify his or her need for a visa for entry to Ireland and to obtain one where necessary. Please contact the relevant authority in your country for more information. The same goes for any other necessities for admission in relation to Covid-19 that might be required (e.g. a negative CPR-test, proof of vaccination, etc.). Please make sure you are aware of the requirements before traveling. Eurosite is not responsible for participants who are denied entry to Ireland. Helpful information for entry requirements regarding Covid-19 is available here:

Article 5 - Insurance

Each person participating in the Natural Climate Buffers study tour is responsible for their own medical, travel or personal insurance. Participants are advised to ensure that they have adequate insurance cover at their own expense or at the expense of their nominating organisation, for accidents, sickness, disability and death, as well as third party risk for the duration of the Natural Climate Buffers study tour. The organisers cannot accept any responsibility or liability in such contingencies.
